More New Tax Laws AND New Tax Forms (Again) –

It is a rare year when there are no tax law changes and 2019 is not one of those years. Forms have once again been revised and new law changes were enacted on December 20, 2019. Some of those changes are retroactive to January 1, 2017. 2017 is NOT a typo. Congress actually made changes and then said ‘Oh let’s just back it up a couple of years.’ This creates the possibility of amendments for 2017 and 2018 in some cases. We are prepared to review your prior year returns to look for these cases as part of our service to you. Call us early for your appointment.
